

ask this question: "Ye did run well (took a strong, unashamed stand for all Baptist doctrines), who hath bewitched you that you are so soon removed?"

The Scriptures also declare that in these last days mankind will not endure (stay with) sound doctrine but will want to go with the ear-ticklers. (2 Tim.4: 3). Further, because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. (Matt.24 12). Unlike the terms "transgression, wickedness, lewdness and abomination," all of which speak of the vilest, the term "iniquity" refers to the counterfeit. This then is saying that because so much counterfeiting is going on, millions are being deceived because they can't tell the difference. My mother used to warn us thusly: "all that glitters is not gold."

The amount of your education, the size of your church or the importance of your position and/or community popularity have not made you immune from Satan's counterfeit, high-sounding seductions before which others-- even stronger than you-- have fallen.

Did not the "MAN OF GOD" who was specifically told by God to do his job but not to go to anyone's place to eat or drink, prove that? He did his job. He was true to his ordained calling. He then obeyed God as he refused the king's invitation to eat and drink in the palace. He was again true to his ordained calling. He obeyed also by going home on the prescribed road. All the way thus far he is a dedicated fundamentalist role model for younger servants of God who may well have had their eyes on him and secretly reprove them," (Eph.5:11); "Come out from among them and be SEPARATE," saith the Lord; "Have no" means "don't get started." "Come out" means if you find yourself already in the mixture, be a "man after God's own heart" and obey-- come out! Not tomorrow but today! (14) Because staying strong as a true Bible-believing Baptist doesn't represent the aggressive, progressive spirit of today's society and is destined to become obsolete and you don't want to be behind all the religions in your city, even though you are associating with the groups that are at work toward the one world anti-Christ church, whose theme is "Tear down the walls" (of doctrine) and (differences). The fact that what a preacher gets involved in when he abandons the Baptist's biblical beliefs of the centuries of doctrine mentioned herein can only mean-- like it or not-- he has moved into the camp of the compromisers, either ignorantly or in the company of those "who will not endure sound doctrine."

Because I have some good preacher friends who have been bewitched by this master-counterfeit program, I can do no less than believe that "all Scripture is given by the inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for CORRECTION and for instruction in righteousness...." (2 Tim. 3:16).

Lastly, what will it be like at the Judgment seat of Christ when we stand face to face with Him Who founded the church and gave her the doctrines? It won't be rewarding when we have to admit that for money, prestige and earthly popularity we abandoned what He first established!

Could I possibly be true to God or to you who hear or read these words if I fail to give you Christ's own instructions-- "Come out of her, MY people." (Rev.18:4). And "MY sheep hear MY voice and they follow ME." (John 10:27).

HOW WE GOT OUR BIBLE

By: Trinitarian Bible Society

Introduction:

We have received several requests for a brief outline of the history of our English Bible. Many large volumes have been written on the subject, and it may seem presumptuous to attempt to summarize such a vast accumulation of literature in a mere eight pages. It is hoped that many who have neither the time nor the inclination to read a lengthy treatise on the subject may find the information they need in this short article.

"The LORD Gave The Word"

The Bible is the gift of God and the writers of the individual books testify that they received a revelation from God. "The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and His Word was in my tongue" (2 Samuel 23:1); "I have put My Words in thy mouth" (Jeremiah 1:9); "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God" (2 Timothy 3:16); "Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost" (2 Peter 1:21). The Lord Jesus Christ in Matthew 4 describes the Holy Scriptures as "every word which proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

The Books of the Old Testament were written in Hebrew on rolls prepared from the skins of animals, and scrupulous care was taken to ensure that copies were accurate. These books were compiled over a period of nearly one thousand years and were completed about 400 years before the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ at Bethlehem. Nearly 300 years before that event the Hebrew books appeared in a Greek translation which became known as the Version of the Seventy (Septuagint) because the translation was believed to be the work of seventy learned Jews of Alexandria. This version was in common use in the days of the Apostles and is often quoted in the New Testament.

Baptist Name...Continued from Previous Issue

...The next day, the newspaper headline read: "Methodist preacher is fired for having Baptist preacher." Two days later it read: "Baptist pastor to baptize fired Methodist preacher and wife." He became a strong Baptist preacher for 45 years. He is in Heaven now. He was honest and honourable-- he sent his Methodist ordination certificate back to them with the statement: "Since I no longer believe as you do, I count it my moral and spiritual duty to return this ordination certificate."

Every pastor who has led or will lead his church to drop or abandon the name "Baptist" should be as honest and honourable as that preacher and send your ordination certificate back to the Baptist church that believed you were telling the truth when you were ordained. As in marriage, the vows are unto God first and then to your mate. Are preachers becoming as fickle and uncaring about their ordination vows as people are about their marriage vows? Is it that easy also to divorce the truth (your spiritual darling) you once deeply cherished?

One preacher is quoted as saying: "We dropped the Baptist name because we found it to be offensive and therefore a hindrance to our desired progress." Another said: "That is not the road people want to travel nowadays." Still a third one said: "Like any business, you must go where the traffic is, and it's not on the Baptist boulevard any more."

Be honest with God, yourself and your people! Answer these questions. Did you drop the Baptist name (or plan to) because (1) Creation is not true? (2) The Old Testament prophets of God were fiction writers? (3) Because the virgin birth was impossible?

(4) Because the One called Jesus, the Christ, was a good man but not God incarnate in flesh? (5) Because the blood from His body on the cross was not efficacious or the only element to atone for man's sin? (6) Because the touted MYTH of the bodily resurrection from the grave is supported even today by numerous religious "intelligencia?" (7) Because salvation is no longer by grace through faith in the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ alone, plus or minus nothing? (8) Because His ascension back to the Father's right hand is a "fairy tale?" (9) Because He presently is the only mediator (contact or connection) between God and man? (10) Because Christ's return in the body is unrealistic, or certainly not soon? (11) Because baptism is no longer the "like figure" (picture) of the death, burial and resurrection of the Son of God, nor does it matter what mode, what "church", or by what authority it is administered? (12) Because the Lord's Supper (Communion) is in no way exclusive but is to be in Promise Keeper's style (everybody) where Jew, Gentile, Catholic, Moslems, Mormons and 25 other groups were "partaking" --making us all one body?

Every sound-doctrine Baptist church should immediately demand public repentance from their pastor, or fire him, for breach of covenant if he partook of "communion" there or anywhere else in like manner. He is a traitor to his ordination vows! (13) Because the old Biblical teaching such as, "have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness but rather like my father-- they and their misled people want to drop and abandon the name Baptist.(Gal.5:7 & 3:1).As Paul wrote to the Galatians, I must state and
